Dear Dr. Prasad Gupta,

I was very interested to see your new preprint on bioRxiv, "Classification Of Mushrooms Using Artificial Neural Network" and would like you and your co-authors to consider submitting your research to our new marquee journal, GEN Biotechnology.

Launched in February 2022, GEN Biotechnology is a multidisciplinary journal publishing outstanding research in all aspects of biotechnology. Spearheaded by Editor-in-Chief Hana El-Samad, PhD (UCSF; Altos Labs) and a wonderfully talented and diverse editorial board, our goal is to create a vibrant venue to validate and share groundbreaking research from our community.

GEN Biotechnology is published by Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., whose portfolio includes 100 preeminent peer-reviewed journals such as Human Gene Therapy, Tissue Engineering, and The CRISPR Journal, as well as Genetic Engineering & Biotechnology News (GEN), which has been covering the biotech space for 40 years. With readership in more than 170 countries, we are superbly positioned to give your paper considerate and thorough peer-review, and prompt publication if accepted.

For more information about the journal, including scope and instructions for authors, please visit our website. To submit your manuscript directly via our online submission system, click here. I am also happy to answer informal presubmission inquiries by email.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Fay Lin, PhD

Senior Editor, GEN Biotechnology
