Dear Prof./Dr. Aaditya Prasad Gupta,

It is our great honor to write you this email. Here is an invitation about working as a part-time editor from EditSprings. This is a remunerated position. Your responsibility is to help non-native English speaking scholars to improve their English writing and the overall quality of their manuscripts.

Who we are

Our company, EditSprings, is an academic service provider established in China, and we hold offices in Wuhan, China and Boston US. Our aim is to help Chinese researchers to publish their academic research papers in SCI, SSCI, and SSCI journals by providing services such as translation, English language editing, scientific editing, peer review, and journal recommendation. More than 500 editors/reviewers, working as doctors, engineers, scientists or university professors, are collaborating with us to help a continuously increasing number of researchers to overcome their English language barrier. Meanwhile, our company has helped more than 10,000 Chinese researchers to publish their papers in various English academic journals.

Programs for your choice

You can work on one or more programs listed as below.

Type	Responsibility
Language editing	modify the papers only for language such as grammar, usage, spelling, punctuation, sentence structures and other mechanics of style
Scientific editing	edit the language syntactically and scientifically, and provide some academic suggestions in the postil to improve the quality of the manuscript.
Academic editing	revise the manuscript in terms of academic logicity, content organization, results analysis, and language; make sure the manuscript is appropriate to be published

Peer Review	assess the manuscript from title to reference and give the advice; assess the manuscript's suitability to the author's intended journal and recommend three journals that are most suited to the manuscript
Journal recommendation	assess the manuscript based on research significance, novelty, preciseness and language; recommend three journals that are most suited to the manuscript

Payment

The detail of payment will be clarified in the editing contract. You may refer to table below for information.

Type	Payment (per ca. 3000 words)
Language editing	$30-$70
Scientific editing	$100-150
Academic editing	$180-240
Peer Review	$50-80
Journal recommendation	$30-45

If you are interested in joining us, please fill up the following registration form and send us your CV. Let us know which areas you would like to choose.

Looking forward to hearing from you!
